AUDITIONS ARE SUNDAY AT UNIVERSITY

MISSOULA--

The 1974 High School Fine Arts Camp, sponsored by the University of Montana School of Fine Arts, will begin Monday (June 17) on the UM campus in Missoula. Registration at 1 p.m. Sunday in the Music Building lobby will be open to those students who have not formerly applied to participate in the camp. Camp activities, which continue through July 3, are open to all students completing grades seven through 12, and will focus on art, dance, drama and music.

Music students will audition from 3-5 p.m. Sunday in the UM Music Building. Placement classes for students taking ballet and modern dancing classes will be 1:30-3 p.m. Sunday in the Women's Center Gymnasium and in WC 104.

Camp activities in the various areas will include: Art--workshop, ceramics, painting, photography and an evening with the artist (presentations in painting, sculpture, photography, ceramics and crafts); dance--ballet and modern; drama--adventures in stage make-up, beginning acting, rehearsal and crew, and theater workshop.

Music activities will include band, chorus and orchestra; class lessons; chamber music; conducting; dance band and swing choir; guitar class; music literature; music theory; piano workshop; piano ensemble and improvisation; and private music lessons (available within the limits of camp resources; a special $15 fee is charged upon arrival for four lessons.)

Dr. Donald W. Simmons, Fine Arts Camp director and chairman of the UM Department of Music, has additional information about the camp.
